Mr. Moore Bizness,
Everywhere.

Dear Sir:-

If its a personal letter and it ought to be, (for a Man's mail will find him when no mortal can,) then you'll subserve your best interest by investigating our unexcelled facilities. Many times you have read and filed our letters and thought them personal.

Tell us your wants and we'll draft the letter, print the stationery, make the letters, fold them, address the envelopes and deliver same to the post office.

We executed over TWO MILLION last year.

Can't we include you among our long list of satisfied customers?

At your service Morning, Noon and Night.
